The knight had known since his childhood that he would one day have to go into battle. He had grown up in luxury having the best of everything. Unfortunately, his luck had run out and he was called into battle. The young knight used his ability to fight for freedom. He never showed fear. Because of his bravery in battle, the young knight was awarded a special medal. Being awarded the medal was a memory that would stick with him forever. The young knight did not waste his talent, he spent his life teaching others to be just as brave as he had been.

Every Friday nite, our family goes out to eat a special meal. We take turns picking a restaurant. This week, I get to chose where we eat. I picked George's Stake House because they're French fries are the best in town. My brother and I ordered a bacon cheesburger with fries. My dad ordered the steak salad, and my mom ordered three cod fillets. We topped off our meal with desert. We all ordered their famous chocolate cake with homemade ice cream.
